WELCOME TO EVOLUTION OUTDOOR

To Our Retail Partners:

Team Evolution offers a full-service approach from concept design to distribution chain solutions for customers. We understand the challenges our retail partners face in this changing marketplace and offer fresh ideas, design, reliability, QC, on time delivery, and warehousing solutions that boosts sales and profits in our categories.

Evolution Outdoor is a Total Solution Provider

We are a vertically integrated company specializing in cut and sew product with a growing emphasis in injection molded utility trays. With multiple efficiencies from our over 40 years of experience and relationships overseas, we offer think tank ideas from an experienced staff of end users. We provide a USA based design team, concept CAD drawings and specifications, first sampling, production, packaging, delivery, and warehousing in any variation needed to fulfill your manufacturing needs. Offering top quality manufacturing from Taiwan, China and Vietnam, we have the solutions for your project. From concept to the counter, we will take your project and make it a reality.

Our Brand, Evolution Outdoor, offers distinct category brands (Evolution Fishing, Evolution Hunting, Evolution Tactical) along with our licensed brand Flambeau soft bag products. Each brand offers unique products that incorporate functionality, durability, cutting edge design, and great values to our consumers. Our staff believes in advancing the category in everything that we do. Our products are built to last and function for our consumers with complete reliability. See for yourself how better ideas, better designs, better fabrics, better construction, and better functionality can still come at a great price. So welcome to Evolution Outdoor. We are the Evolution of the outdoors. It is great out here. Come be in it with us!
